

SUMMER SCHOOL ON SINGLE MOLECULE BIOPHYSICS

August 16-19, 2010
Leuven, Belgium

TRAVEL INFORMATION

Leuven is a university town in Belgium, located in the heart of Europe. It is located about 20 kilometers east of Brussels, the capital of Belgium.

Brussels International Airport

Less than half an hour from Leuven, Brussels International Airport offers non-stop service to all major destinations. The official designation of the airport is BRU. There are several options for Public Transport in order to reach Leuven:

Rail: Direct trains are available to Leuven from the lower level of the Arrivals hall (€ 5.35 one-way ticket). Further information is available from Belgian Railways.

Taxi: Metered taxis are available outside the Arrivals hall (tickets can be booked in advance at taxi2airport for 21-35 € one way, 41-75 € round trip).

How to get to the Summer School student accommodation

The rooms reserved for the summer school students are located at the student residency Johannes XXIII, Tervuursevest 141, B-3001 Leuven, on walking distance from the venue where the summer school takes place. Breakfast will be provided at a student restaurant nearby. Coming from the Leuven Railway Station, you can reach the student residency by bus.

Bus: De Lijn buses serve routes throughout Flanders, including Leuven. From the Leuven Railway Station, take the bus in the direction of 'Heverlee'. You can use:

*line # 337 Leuven Wavre (get off at stop 'Heverlee sportcentrum')

*line # 2 Kessel-lo – Heverlee (get off at stop 'Naamsepoort') *line # 1 Leuven – Heverlee (get off at stop 'Naamsepoort')

During weekdays there's a "ring bus" (# 600) that will bring you to the 'Tervuursepoort', between 6 a.m. and 8 p.m., every 10 minutes.
